

Assistant Patrol Leader

Job Description

The Assistant Patrol Leader supports the Patrol Leader by looking after fellow Cub Scouts within the Patrol and assisting the Patrol Leader as needed.

Attitudes

- Open to taking advice
- Wanting to set the standard
- Caring about the wellbeing of the Unit
- Commitment to follow the promise and law
- Understanding the importance of learning, through adventure based in the outdoors
- Learning by doing is how learning experiences should be implemented
- Team oriented
- Acts as a role model
- Aspiring to achieve highly
- A positive can-do attitude
- Respectful

Skills

- Engaging fellow youth members in fun, challenging, adventurous and inclusive adventures
- Accept responsibility for your actions including mistakes
- Having Resilience
- Learn leadership skills through practice and experiences

Responsibilities

- Providing support to the Cub Scouts in their Patrol
- Help to ensure the overall wellbeing of the Patrol
- Welcome new members into the Unit

Tasks may be delegated to other members of the Unit or adults as necessary. The Unit Council may make minor adjustments or additions to these role descriptions, provided the overall purpose of the role is maintained.

Patrol Leader Job Description

The role of the Patrol Leader is to lead their Patrol. This involves helping the Cub Scouts through their Section journey, and to be a significant contributor to the Unit Council through direction and implementation of the program.

Attitudes

- Open to taking advice
- Wanting to set the standard
- Caring about the wellbeing of the Unit
- Commitment to follow the Promise and Law
- Understanding the importance of learning, through adventure based in the outdoors
- Learning by doing is how learning experiences should be implemented
- Team oriented
- Acts as a role model
- Aspiring to achieve highly
- A positive can-do attitude
- Respectful

Knowledge

- Know the Scout Method and Challenge Areas
- Know where to find resources for the program
- Understand Achievement Pathways

Skills

- Engaging fellow youth members in fun, challenging, adventurous and inclusive adventures
- Accept responsibility for their actions, including their mistakes
- Having resilience
- Learn leadership skills through practice and experiences

Responsibilities

- Attend Unit Council
- Helps the program run smoothly and effectively
- Responsible for the overall wellbeing of the Patrol
- Regular and consistent attendance
- Helps provide a fun, active and motivating environment
- Assists in duties when nominated
- Leads and runs opening and/or closing games on Section nights

Tasks may be delegated to other members of the Unit or adults as necessary. The Unit Council may make minor adjustments or additions to these role descriptions, provided the overall purpose of the role is maintained.

Unit Leader Job Description

The Unit Leader is the primary youth leadership role within the Unit. They should guide and direct youth leaders and support adults in maintaining a quality balanced program.

Attitudes

- Open to taking advice
- Wanting to set the standard
- Caring about the wellbeing of the Section
- Commitment to follow the Promise and Law
- Understanding the importance of learning through adventure based in the outdoors
- Learning by doing is how learning experiences should be implemented
- Team oriented
- Acts as a role model
- Aspiring to achieve highly
- A positive can-do attitude
- Respectful

Skills

- Engaging fellow youth members in fun, challenging, adventurous and inclusive adventures
- Model Plan>Do>Review>
- Leadership experience
- Accept responsibility for your actions including mistakes

Knowledge

- Understanding of the Scout Method and SPICES
- Know how to access resources for program delivery
- Understand Achievement Pathways

Responsibilities

- Chairs the Unit Council with the support of adults
- Leads ceremonies
- Responsible for the overall wellbeing of the Unit
- Manages and mentors Patrol Leaders
- Regular and consistent attendance
- Using resources such as adults and technology to assist in a best practice program

Tasks may be delegated to other members of the Unit or adults as necessary. The Unit Council may make minor adjustments or additions to these role descriptions, provided the overall purpose of the role is maintained.