

Rover Scouts

- We are responsible for our program and the management of the Unit
- Members of the Unit lead all activities, include the planning of the activities
- Our Unit Leader is responsible for the organisation and management of the Unit
- Our Unit Leader and Unit Council are responsible for supporting all Unit members throughout their Rover Scout journey
- Our Unit Leader and Unit Council are responsible for supporting the resolution of issues within the Unit
- We teach and train other Rover Scouts
- We actively participate in activities outside our Unit
- We look out for the wellbeing of other members in our Unit
- We all support each other in our Unit
- All Unit members have the opportunity to set their own personal development goals including their progression through the Achievement Pathways
- We use the Scout Method and SPICES when reviewing our program. We learn from these reviews to enhance the next activities we do.
- We develop supporting documentation (such as risk management strategies) for activities
- We lead, assist and support the program for the younger sections in our Group
- We set the standard of behaviour in our Unit